

When I am following the rules and doing my best...
	People will tell you... <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Your friends will tell you. "That was really kind of you. Thank you" - Your parents will tell you. "I'm so proud of how hard you tried with reading" - Adults in school will tell you. "What beautiful manners. Thank you."
Adults in school might send a note home or speak to your family to say how well you have done. 'Dear Polly's family, I just wanted to say how proud I have been of Polly over the last few weeks. She has been a kind friend, always says good morning with a smile on her face and has been helping tidy the chairs away at the end of the day. What a superstar.'
	Special responsibilities If you are super helpful and reliable (this means you can always be trusted to do your best) you might be given special jobs like: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Playleader - School radio - School council - Ipad monitor - VIP for the day
	Above and Beyond When you are showing us all the time how fantastic you are at following the school rules. You might get nominated to receive an 'Above and Beyond Award'
Quinta Star Sometimes, you get an Above and Beyond Award and still keep following the rules and being simply amazing. For example: having beautiful manners, working hard, being kind and helpful, wearing your uniform smart... If this is you then you might just be awarded 'The Quinta Star' - our highest award. If you earn this you will get a chair in assembly and special privileges.
	This year you might even earn your whole class a point for following the rules. Class Points allow you to win rewards for the whole class

When I am not following the school rules...

Level 1 - Low

Something small

(Like talking when it's someone else's turn or having your shirt untucked)

You will get a reminder and a warning. This will help you to remember.

Level 2 - Medium

- Something small (again)

(Like talking again or distracting others)

Or

- Something mean

Being unkind to a person in your class or refusing to follow instructions straight away.

You will spend some of your playtime or lunchtime with an adult to talk through how you can get things right next time.

Level 3 - High

- Being really mean, hurting someone or damaging something on purpose

Or

- Refusing to follow instructions.

Or

- Being unsafe

You will have a longer time with an adult thinking about how you can make better choices next time and how you can put right what you have done.

Level 4 when my behaviour isn't getting better...

If you are still struggling to follow the rules after lots of chances and chats, you will have reflection time.

We will make a plan to help you and share it with your teachers and family.

We call this our 'Pathway to Positive'
